

An Indo-Korean Ceramic Residency & Exhibition

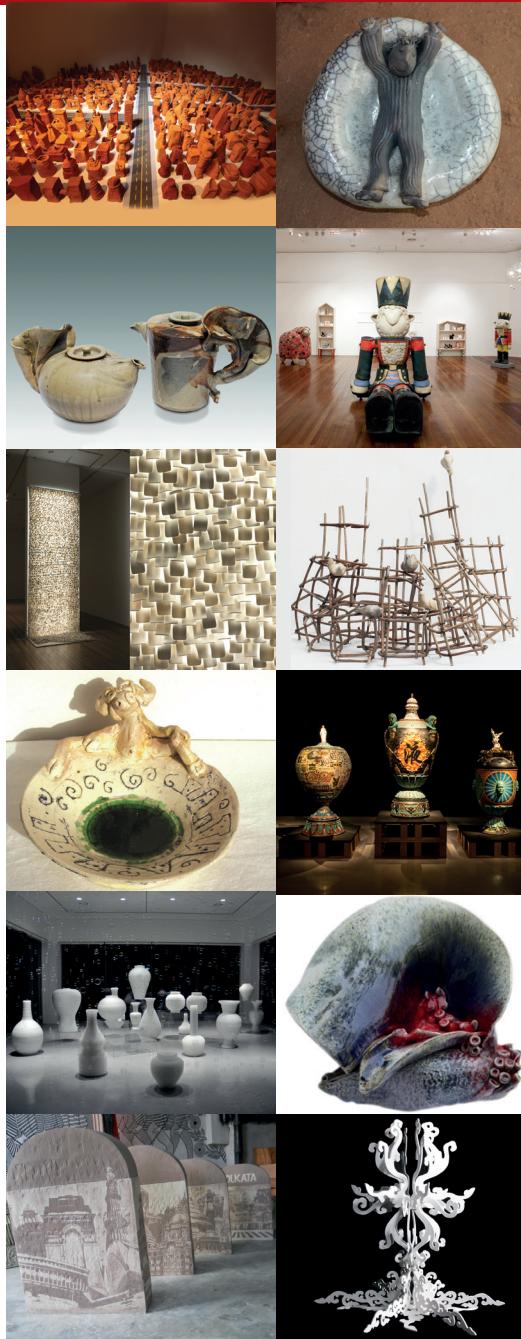

InKo Centre, in association with Arts Council Korea (ARKO) Lalit Kala Akademi and Kalakshetra Foundation, is delighted to present a unique Indo-Korean Ceramic residency project that will bring together 12 ceramic artists - 6 each from India and Korea - in a 4 week residency in Chennai. This the second in the series in India, following the first edition in January 2012.

Most of the work on display at the resultant exhibition at Lalit Kala Akademi, were created during a four-week residency at Kalakshetra Foundation, Chennai.

Mr N. Gopalaswami, Chairman, Kalakshetra Foundation, has kindly consented to inaugurate this exhibition at 5 pm on 24 February 2015 at Lalit Kala Akademi, Chennai.

Mr Kyungsoo Kim, Consul General of the Republic of Korea, will release the special brochure titled EarthMatters2: An Indo-Korean Ceramic Art Collaboration.

Dr K.K.Chakravarty, Chairman, Lalit Kala Akademi, will receive the first copy.

Symposium

EarthMatters2: Contemporary Indian and Korean Ceramic Art

25 February 2015,
10 am to 1 pm,
at Lalit Kala Akademi,
No. 4, Thousand Lights, Greams Road, Chennai-600006.

Opening address by Dr K.K. Chakravarty, Chairman, Lalit Kala Akademi.

Presentations:

Ceramic Journey... India- Past, Present & Future
Ms. Manisha Bhattacharya, Senior Ceramic Artist, New Delhi.

Contemporary Korean Ceramic Works: A joint presentation by Jung Hyesook, Kim Jaegyu, Kim Seungtaek, Kim Younghyun, Son Jinhee, Yoo Euijeong - the six Korean artists who participated in the four-week, Indo-Korean residency in Chennai.

The Indian Counterpoint: A joint presentation by Ashish Chowdhury, Nidhi Chopra, Phalguni Samanta, Srinia Chowdhury, S Potrarasan, Zaida Jacob - the six Indian artists who participated in the four-week, Indo-Korean residency in Chennai.